Email from L@@@ School 1:47pm:

Hi,

I am the school's Learning Mentor for TE. This morning mum has dropped off TE in school in my opinion smelling of alcohol. I confronted mum about the smell and she said that she had not been drinking and that she was fine. Mum was not slurring her words and was able to hold a conversation. In the playground another pupil's parent approached me and commented on the smell.

I also received an anonymous note over the weekend stating that mum had been seen on Saturday "blind drunk" and "staggering" down the street with a male who is known on the local C##### estate as a dealer – name PT living on H##### Street. Since there have been concerns about mum's drinking in the past I am referring this to the Safeguarding Hub.

TE has been fine in school today although he looks a bit tired.

Kind Regards,

E#####
